EPC Transfer Study Guide Presbytery of Central Carolinas, for April 2024

Before you prepare for your exams, contact Butch Hill to make sure you are on track. Also, make sure you know the date of the exams and Presbytery meeting.

This guide is intended to help transfers from within the EPC prepare for the Examination Team and Presbytery examinations. Most questions will be taken from it. The exams will be oral, with no helps of any kind. You will probably be examined alongside other candidates.

After Butch gets you started, you should email George Schwab for materials to help you think through the issues and begin preparing.

You should look at the EPC's resources site for access to needed materials in addition to those supplied by George Schwab. Make sure you are very familiar with the following:

- The Bible.
- The Essentials of our Faith.
- Westminster Confession of Faith. Read all 35 chapters in modern English.
- The Book of Order. Make sure you study the latest version.
- Liberty in Non-Essentials by Rev. Dr. Don Fortson. It is suggested that you read in its entirety. Page references are supplied in the History section. Also, some history questions include page references from Pitman, found here.
- Presbytery's various position papers.

Addresses you should know:

Robert Howard, Stated Clerk statedclerk@carolinasepc.org

Butch Hill, Chair of Ministerial Committee mincom@carolinasepc.org

George Schwab, Chair, Examination Committee schwab@erskine.edu

Brian Land, Missional Director missionaldirector@carolinasepc.org

Polity

You will be asked: Have you read the Book of Order of the EPC? (“No”=instant fail)

Define the Book of Order.

What do you see as valuable is the motto of the EPC?

Why do you think we value liberty in non-essentials?

If a commissioner to Presbytery tries to debate a non-essential, what will happen?

Who is the missional executive director?

Who is the stated Clerk of Presbytery? What is his email address?

Who is the current moderator of Presbytery?

Who is the chair of the church development committee?

In your opinion, why are the marks of the church important?

The Book of Order states that the first duty of an Elder is to represent the mind of Christ as they understand it in the courts of the church. How is this beneficial for us today?

In 1984, the GA adopted a position paper on the ordination of women. Tell us what you particularly appreciate about it.

In 1986, the GA adopted a position paper on the Holy Spirit. Tell us what you think about it.

Why is it important for a Session to make provision for courses of instruction to train Ruling Elders before they are ordained?

What is your practice in regard to financial stewardship and church giving?

Why is it important that the EPC may make no provision in the BOO to establish any trust of property held by or for a local church?

Reflect on the purpose of church discipline.

What does it mean that man’s chief end is to glorify God & to enjoy Him forever?

Should a funeral always focus on the hope of the resurrection? How would you do this?

Office and Work of the Pastor

You will be asked these 3 questions:

Would you perform a same-sex wedding?

What is the gospel? (Briefly explain the gospel)

How do you make disciples?

Describe how you would deal with the following issues and events:

Homosexuality in the church

Abortion as an option

Church discipline, including restoration

Baptism vs. Baby dedication

Dealing with Divorce

Motivating to Evangelism

Remarriage after divorce

Dealing with Suicide

A parishioner struggling with grief or depression

Pastoral oversight

Unfaithfulness in marriage

Church conflict

Confidentiality

Where do you see your role in relationship with the Session?

Dealing with abuse in marriage

Counseling someone whose infant died

How would you counsel someone struggling with addiction to:

Pornography

Gambling

Drinking/drugs

How would you counsel a young woman in your congregation who believes God is calling her to serve as an ordained pastor? What seminary would you advise her to attend?

A member of your church has been invited to a lesbian wedding and has come to you for advice. What advice would you give?

A man in your church tells you he feels like he is really a female inside and is thinking about having gender reassignment surgery. How would you counsel him?

What are significant challenges for pastors and the Church in America today?

In your view, what is the most effective form of evangelism today and give an example of using this in your ministry?

How would you counsel a member of your church who doubts their election and/or salvation?

How would you respond if someone with cancer requested to be anointed with oil and prayed over for healing by you and the elders?

What is your opinion of this statement, “The EPC affirms the gifts of God’s Spirit as biblically valid for today”?

A missionary returns from the field and tells you about miracles he witnessed while there. How would you process that?

A charismatic in your congregation wants a seminary education. Where would you advise him or her to attend?

If there was a pandemic and the governor imposed a stay at home order, how would you as pastor lead the church?

Questions about Marriage:

An engaged couple seeks your services to officiate their wedding. In the process of leading them through pre-marital counseling you discover that they are living together and are sexually active. How do you respond pastorally to this couple?

Would you respond differently if they have had a child together who is living in the home as well?

How would you counsel a couple whose previous marriages ended in unbiblical divorces? Are there special circumstances that would shape your counsel? What does the EPC Position Paper say about it?

How would you counsel someone who is trying to understand the Scriptural picture of marriage?

Questions about baptism:

What would you say to a young couple with a 3 month old infant that want to have their baby dedicated instead of baptized?

What would be an appropriate response to a couple if they wanted to have their infant baptized in the privacy of their home?

A member of your congregation was baptized as a child but never came to know the Lord. Now, as an adult, they have become a believer and desire to be baptized. How would you respond to their request?

Questions about the demonic:

A member of your church tells you that doors open and close and the lights in their home turn on and off on their own. They think this is demonic activity. What steps would you take next?

What is your opinion of Jesus’ statement on demons, “This kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting”? How do you apply this to your ministry?
